ALAMEDA HAS BUT LIMITED CHOICE

The case of Alameda is different. Alameda is opposed to simply joining Oakland, and has not the privilege enjoyed by Berkeley of going by itself. While there has never been a court decision on the act under which consolidation is being attempted, and no judicial definition has been made of its phraseology and its terms, everybody remembers the vote upon the famous million dollar bond issue for the San Francisco exposition, when Alameda was the only community that gave the necessary majority. EARLY MORNING FATIGUE

When you awake in the morning feeling tired out, feeling worse in fact than when you went to bed, you are confronted with one of the characteristic symptoms of neurasthenia. It is due to the run-down condition of the nerves that rest does not bring renewed strength and sleep refresh the tired brain. Overwork and wor-ry are the most frequent causes of this condition. HARDING READY FOR ALL-COMERS: PREFERS WILSON

By A. O. HAYWARD, International News Service Staff

WASHINGTON. June 19.-Senator Warren G. Harding, the Repubready to meet President Wilson as the Democratic contender for election to the presidency on the league of nations issue, or any other platform that the Democrats may put forth, it was announced at the Republican headquarters this morning. There was Republican rejoicing the fact that President Wilson's friends here are asserting that Wilson is in the field for a third term

The senator would make no comment on the Democratic political situation. He said that he was proceeding as rapidly as possible to put himself and his friends in position for the fight against his political opponents. He did not deny a con-suming interest in the unfolding of the Democratic program and the contention that exists among the Democrats over their nominees. WILSON TO BOSS THINGS

Many prominent Democratic leadirs expressed themselves as not surprised by the latest developments in the Democratic camp, or the position taken by President Wilson. They expect him to dictate the Democratic nomination and looking forward to his demand for his own selection. Though not willing to be quoted, they said that such was the logical conclusion after a careful study of the most recent White House political pronouncement.

THE LIVING AND THE DEAD Both to Hear the Gospel

By DR. JAMES E. TALMAGE Of the Council of the Twelve, Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints; Salt Lake City, Utah.

author.

The Atonement of Jesus Christ is the means by which salvation has been placed within the reach of all mankind—poor and rich, bund and

We have seen in the light of scriptural demonstration that except through compliance with the laws and ordinances of the Gospel as enunciated and prescribed by the Lord Jesus Christ no man can attain a place in the Kingdom of God

What then of the dead, who have lived and passed without so much as hearing that there is a Gospel of salvation or a Savior of the race " 're they to be hopelessly and forever damned". If so, the phrase "eternal justice' should be stricken from Scripture and literature, and infamous injustice' substituted. Think of the myriads who died before and at the Deluge, of the hosts of Israel who knew only the Law and died in ignorance of the Gospel, and count in with them the millions of their pagan contemporaries: then think of the generations who passed away during the long dark night of spiritual apostasy predicted by prophecy and attested by history, and contemplate the heathen and but partly civilized tribes of the present day. Are these, to whom no knowledge of the Gospel has come, to be under eternal condemnation in consequence? In the hereafter the saved and the lost are to be segregated. The Scriptures so avouch. Therefore, were there no salvation for those who have died in ignorance of Christ's Atonement and His Gospel, these benighted spirits could never associate with their descendants who have been privileged to live in an age of Gospel enlightenment, and who have made themselves eligible for salvation by faith and its fruitage, obedience I have read of a heathen king who, through the zealous efforts of missionaries whom he had tolerantly admitted to his realm, was inclined to accept what had been presented to him as Christianity and make it the religion of his people. Though he yearned for the blessed state of salvation which the new religion seemed to offer, he was profoundly affected by the thought that his ancestors, the dead chieftains of his ribe together with all the departed of his people, had gone to graves unsayed. When he was told that while he and his subjects could each heaven those who had died before had surely gone to hell, he exclaimed with a loud eath "Then to hell I will go with them." He spoke as a brave man. Though, had he been more fully informed he would have known that the Gospel of Jesus Christ entails no such dire certainty: but that, on the contrary, the spirits of his noble dead would have opportunity of learning, in the world of the disembodied, the saving truth which in the flesh had never saluted their ears. The Gospel is being preached to the dead. Missionary service in the Christ's promise from the cross to the penitent thief dying by His side, that the man should that day be in paradise with the Lord, tells us where the Savior's spirit went and ministered during the Interval between death and resurrection Paradise is not heaven, if by that name we mean the abode of God and the place of the supremely blessed; for in the early light of the resurrection Sunday the Risen Lord decisively affirmed that He had not then ascended to His Father. (See John 20.17).

Peter tells of the Lord's ministry among the disembodied: 'For Christ also both once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but quickened by the Spirit' By which also he went and preached unto the spirits in prison.' (1 Peter : 18-19)

The terms of salvation are equally binding upon the quick and the dead. "For for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit" (1 Peter 4.6)

The Atonement would be shorn of its subline import and effect were its provisions limited to the relative few who have complied with the ordinances of the Gospel in the body. But the Scriptures abundantiv show that the Atonement is of universal effect, reaching every soul, both in the certainty of resurrection from death and in the opportunity for salvation through individual obedience With particular reference to redemption from death Jacob, a Nephite prophet, thus spake: "Wherefore it must needs be an infinite atonement: save it should be an infinite atonement, this corruption could not put on incorruption" (Book of Mormon, 2 Nephi 9 7).

Obedience to Gospel requirements is likewise of universal application. It follows that if any man has falled, either through neglect or lack of opportunity to meet the requirement, the obligation is not cancelled by death.

DETROIT CLUB MAY REFUSE TO DELIVER 'DOC' AYRES TO OAKS

No Agreement Between Majors and Minors That Can Make Navin Keep His Word.

By EDDIE MURPHY

President Frank J. Navin and Manager Hughie Jennings of the Detroit Tigers are today in the midst of trouble and no matter which way they try to get out of it, they will come in for a bit of "panning." The gent who is the cause of all the trouble is "Doc" Ayres, the pitcher who Cal Ewing said he had purchased from the Detroit club, along with Infielder Ray "Red" Brubaker, before leaving the east last Sunday night. Since Ewing left the east, Ayres has pitched two shutout games for the Tigers and fans in Oakland, and even the owner of the local club are wondering if Navin and Jennings will try to call the sale off and haug onto Ayres. It is a cinch that the Detroit heads will make many enemies for themselves among the Detroit fans by letting Ayres come to the Oaks. Now, to avoid making those enemies, will they refuse to let Ayres come here?

Ayres come here?

If the Detroit owners want to go back on their word to Ewing they can do so, for there is no agreement that the minor leagues have with the majors to prevent them. If Avres falls to come to the Oaks Ewing says he will have to be satisfied, and that it will be just another bit of the same hard luck that the Oaks have been having in landing good players from the majors. Last year Ewing went east and paid $5000 for Roy Grover, but he falled to deliver the goods. But Ayres piching two shutouts this week against the Athletics and Red Sox proved that Ewing had made a real pick for the Oaks this time.

Ewing Thinks That Navin

Ewing Thinks That Navin Will Not Cancel Sale

Will Not Cancel Sale

When Ewing left the east last Sunday night only one obstacle was in the way of Avres coming here, and that was the refusal of the St Louis Cardinals to waive on him Ewing had Tresident John A Heydler of the National league see Manager Branch Rickey and have him waive on Ayres. Ewing leceited a wire on the train from Heydler, saying that the Cardinal manager had done so Cal was satisfied that everything was fixed for Ayres to come here. Then came the two shutout wins A wire was sent to Detroit Thursday, asking if Ayres was on his way out here. So far no reply has been received, and Ewing is hoping that it will arrive today, saying that Jennings and Navin intend to stick to their promise and let Avres come to the Oaks. If he comes, there will be a lot of disgruntled fans at Detroit, and if he don't then there will be almost as many in Oakland, and President Ewing will not forget about the Detroit owners going back on their word No one can show where Cal ever came out the worse when he had his little baseball troubles.

New Oakland Infielder Is a Second Kenworthy

Ray Brubaker wired from Okla-home City last evening that he has received notice from Detroit of his sale to the Oaks and that he is glad of the opportunity to come to the Coast. The infielder would hardly arrive here betwee next rinay, and consto. Runs responsible for Woodward it is likely that he will be notified to left on bases—Seattle 4. Russell (Buz) Arlett, the big Oak hurler, who was batted from the box by the Seattle Rainiers last Tuesday afternoon in the opening game of the ceilar series, came back at the Rainiers yesterday afternoon and practically beat them by himself. Old practically beat them by himself. Old sol had all the fans pulling their coats off and Bux Arlett had a lot of the Rainiers pulling from the plate. The best that the Rainiers could do against Buz was to get four hits, one being a two-ply smash by Pinch-hitter Carl Zamloch with nobody out in the ninth inning. Buz scored the Oak's only run by hitting a slashing single in the sixth inning, moving to third on walks to Lane and Wille and spiking the rubber when Hack Miller singled to right. Bill Stumpf ran back of second base to get Knight's fast bounder and turn it into a double play via Kenworthy and Murphy.

Murphy.

That run scored by Arlett beat the Rainlers, but Buz had to make a wonderful play in the ninth to make that little run prove the winner. With Zamloch on second Roxey Middleton bounced a slow one to Bur, and the big Oak pitcher took one peck at third and heaved the bail to Jack Knight, who got in just in time to tag out Cunningham, who was running for Zamloch. The Seattle players raved over the decision, but the umps appeared to be in the right. Middleton was then forced by Bohne, who stole second. Rod Murphy drew a walk and the Buz took care of Eldred's high fly for the last out.

Inside Dope on the Little Four-Rounders

There is a feeling among local fans that Battling Henry Ortega is going to lick Mike O'Down when the pair meet at Milwaukee, near Portland next Thursday evening. The question "How will Ortega do against O'Dowd" propounded along Broadway last night brought forth the reply "The Battler will win" Down at the Point they are raking and scraping all the spare change together to bet on the Mexican and the baby's bank and the Christmas savings are liable to be shipped north before the night of the fight.

Manager Tommy Simpson is extremely confident "O'Dowd will have to knock the Battler out inside four rounds if he is going to win. Theer is no man in the world can stand the constant pounding of the Mexican for ten rounds The further the fight goes the better will be Oriega's chances and it will not surprise me in the least should Bat win on a knock-out. O'Dowd has met the best of them in the east and he was the middleweight champion but he never met a fighter of the Ortega type I look for the Battler to wear Mike down and win on a knockout or an easy decision."

Ortega himself thinks he can win in fact the Battler was never so confident or so full of pep. Just before the train pulled out Thursday night Bat hopped around the depot shadow boxing. When the Mexican feels this way it means bad luck for his opponent. And Bat says this is his lucky month. He dug up the records showing that he always made his best fights in June. His birthday is in this month and the Battler played his lucky hunch by rolling a few games of African golf and coming out $400 winner in as many days. If the hunch works that strong it will help Bat immensely when he meets the ex-champion. Confidence is half the battle.

Simpson leaves Monday for the battle ground and a carload of West Oakland sports will hook their special car onto the same train. The boys from the Point are going loaded for bear and they promise to "take" the eastern visitors woh think Mr Michael O'Dowd is the greatest middleweight in the world. The Shriners are holding a big convention in Portland next week and thousands of visitors from the other side of the mountains will be in town. They will be O'Down men and they probably have never heard of Ortega. The West Oakland boys promise to make them very well acquainted with the Battler.

At San Leandro, the C. L. Best Tractors are offering a little more than a ball game, and Bill Wagner thinks that the big crowd of the day will be at Cherry Park. NEW LAW FOR ANARCHISTS

Although there were many discussions and pro longed hearings before regular and special com mittee on the immigration question no new immigration law was enacted at the last session of Congress. The formulation of a new policy and the passage of a law to carry out that policy is one of the tasks awaiting the December session

Congress did take two steps, however, closely related to the subject of immigration. It adopted a resolution extending the war-time control over passports until April, 1921, and passed a bill providing for the exclusion and expulsion of aliens of anarchist and other objectionable activ ittes. Unless such friendship for enemies of the government as has been shown by Mr. Louis F. Post, Assistant Secretary of Labor, defeats the purpose of this law it will suffice to remedy a decided weakness of the immigration act and greatly facilitate the important work of ridding guide in the conduct of the government. And in the country of dangerous aliens

The amendment to enable effective proceedings against the alien revolutionaries is expected to overcome many of the existing difficulties. The original act is so indefinite as to what shall constitute proof of unlawful activities that the authorities have had a great deal of trouble in sustaining a case against a suspected anarchist says in part:

"Aliens who write, circulate distribute or print or who have in their possession for the matter * * * advocating or leaching

"(2) The duty, necessity or propriety of the ungenerally) of the Government of the United States. or of any other organized government

"(3) The unlawful damage, injury or destruction of property. "(4) Sabotage."

This new legislation has thus made it much easier to establish the guilt of the anarchists communists, I W W and other enemies of the government. Having in possession for the pur poses of distribution of anarchistic literature will be proof of guilt: in establishing that an organ ization is aparchistic it will not be necessary to go back to the constitution belows, rules etc. of the organization, but merely to prove that it printed and distributed or had in its possession for the purposes of distribution literature that is for the first time defined as proof of anarchistic behef.

Administration of a some section of the immigration law falls under two headings. Prest i the exclusion of alons guilty of anarchistic be that ford seed is no longer being used in the tresno Republican liefs and purposes at the changiation stations, and, second, the expulsion of alters dready in the country found guilty of anti-government offenses. Saccharin—Its Uses and

Its Values for Diabetes By Dr. LEONARD E. HIRSHBERG, A. B., M. A., M. D.

(Johns Hopkins University.) Cane engar is a food, a carbohydrate, just as egg white is a protein, butter is a fat and salt is a mineral. Cane sugar or granulated sugar is also called saccharose, just as grape sugar is known as glucose. and milk sugar as lactose.

Baccharose in the mouth and stomach becomes the simpler suxal. glucose. Obviously, all hyper-critiagainst glucose, thus also in their sugar, because it must change to glucose or "corn syrup" before it can be directed.

Saccharin, however, is not a food. It is a sweet, but not a sugar, which is "a horse of another color." Moreover, saccharin, be it ever so harmless, is a drug or chemical made from toluol, and discovered at Johns Hopking University. It has been compared to such seasoning condiments as cloves, ginger, cinnamon and pepper.

Saccharin makes foods palatable. especially to diabetics and others who dare not use much sugar or starchy foods

As much as five to eight grains of this "terribly sweet" saccharin has been used by at least one victim of diabetes for twenty-four years without any evidence or sign of injury

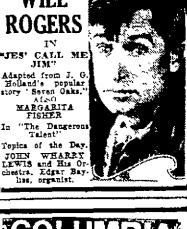

Saccharin occasionally produces a bitter taste if taken in as high as twenty grain quantities per day over several months' time. This disappears in eight to ten days if the saccharin is stopped.

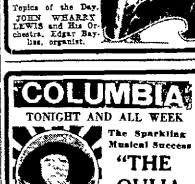

Saccharin does not form a drug abit. Those who begin with five grains a day may never increase it beyong this in fifteen or twenty Furthermore, they can stop it any ime Saccharin, as shown by experiments by Dr. Stephen H Blodgett of Boston, establishes no habit does no apparent harm, does not 'spoll your appetite" as does sugar and seems to be a definite help to those who have the sugar disease diabetes. If saccharin is looked upon more as a chemical and a condiment and not as a food substitute for the carbohydrates, the sugars and starches it would appear to have a definity place in the treatment of summe complaint, dysentery, diarrhoea and diabetes as a sweetening agent which is unaffected by decay, fermentation and infection from the yeasts, bacteria and moulds which flourish in the alimentary canal of man.

Electric Washer & Wringer

It's the one-way cylinder of the Crystal that makes it wash so effectively and rapidly.

Since the cylinder runs only in one direction the Crystal is not subject to destructive jars and strains, never becomes noisy and its life is prolonged for years.

Famous experts and men of authority awarded the Gold Medal (highest award) to the Crystal over all cylinder washing machines at the P. P. I. E., placing it in a class by itself. A still better machine now.
